

DOCTOR TRAPS HUMAN ENERGY IN BOTTLE FOR FUTURE USE IN CURING DISEASE

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Daily Newspaper.

N. D. Cochran,
Editor and Publisher.
500 South Peoria St.

398

Tel. Monroe 353.
Automatic 51-422.

By Mail, 50 Cents a Month.

VOL. 3, NO. 8

Chicago, Tuesday, Oct. 7, 1913

ONE CENT

WIFE OF MAN ACCUSED OF "RITUAL MURDER" TELLS HER STORY

*Mary Boyle O'Reilly Gets First Interview From Mrs.
Mendel Beilis—Jewish Mother of Three Children
Says Charge Against Her Husband Is Not True—Wants to Come to America.*

Editor's Note—To Mary Boyle O'Reilly, staff correspondent for The Day Book, now in Russia to investigate the alleged persecutions of millions of Jews there at the hands of government officials and other Jew baiters, has been granted at Kiev the first and only interview with Mrs. Mendel Beilis, wife of the man accused of the horrible "ritual murder," so-called, of the 12-year-old Christian boy, Andrusha Yustschinsky. It is a human document teeming with heartaches.)

BY MARY BOYLE O'REILLY

(Copyright, 1913, in the United States and England by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.)

Kiev, Southern Russia, Oct. 7.—Within the Pale.—There are few things more diabolical than "justice" in Russia and no authority on earth so compelling as the power of the czar. But not even the weight of Russian government can crush out hope in a woman's heart.

It is two weary years since the criminal police of Kiev arrested Mendel Beilis on an indefinite murder charge. Yet today his wife, alone with their